

United Way of the Tri-Valley Area

Community Investment Team Policy Addendum

- United Way of the Tri-Valley Area does not discriminate and is non-partisan and non-religious.
- United Way of the Tri-Valley Area prohibits the direct support of churches, but does support church-sponsored organizations and programs that are providing health and human service activities.
- Services and programs offered by funded organizations/programs must be open to all individuals regardless of religious affiliation.
- The sole purpose of the funded program cannot be to promote religious beliefs or activities.